Headteacher: Mr Andrew Minchin B.A.

AMI/EHT role

December 2019

Dear Parents/Carers

I wish to inform you of a change of leadership responsibilities at The Robert Napier School. Following the decision of our current Executive Headteacher, Mr Paul Jackson, to step down and concentrate solely on being Headteacher of the Thomas Aveling School, the Trustees of FPTA Academies have appointed me as the Executive Headteacher with overall executive oversight of the Trust, while still retaining direct oversight of The Robert Napier School. This change will take effect from 1st January 2020.

Therefore, I am pleased to announce that with effect from 1st January 2020, Mr Steve Quenby will become Head of School and will take on more of the day to day responsibilities of leading the school. I will continue to be fully involved in the strategic planning and evaluation of the school and will work closely with Mr Quenby to support him in leading the school to further improvements. I will still be based in the school and will be spending most of my time on work related to The Robert Napier School.

In addition, we will also be looking to bolster the size of the leadership team, to take account of the fact that I will also need to focus on other schools within the Trust. I am looking forward to the opportunity this role will afford me in steering the Trust, and The Robert Napier School, onto even greater achievements in the coming months and years ahead.

It just remains for me to take this opportunity to thank you for your continued support and to wish you all a very merry Christmas.

Your faithfully
